- ❖ Crisis stabilization
- ❖ Referral and linkage to community resources

The Behavioral Health Crisis Center is a safe, supportive environment that provides emergency access to behavioral health care to those experiencing a behavioral health crisis. Referrals can be made by community agencies, law enforcement, medical providers, self-referrals, etc.

The Behavioral Health Crisis Center is a partnership between the Gibson Center for Behavioral Change and the Community Counseling Center. The BHCC will provide a no-wrong-door approach 24/7 for those experiencing a mental health crisis. Our goal is to stabilize the behavioral health crisis while keeping individuals within their local community which will also include linkage to community resources for an aftercare plan.

At the Behavioral Health Crisis Center, our Crisis Assist Team provides, 24/7 response to individuals who are having a behavioral health crisis or are having thoughts of suicide. The team helps find resources and provides support and service on an individual basis to manage the crisis.

It's okay to ask for help.

If you or a loved one is in need of crisis support urgently, call or text 988.
If you are experiencing an emergency please call your local emergency services at 911.
